THE PRESIDENT IN STEAMBOAT COLLISION

But Was Not Injured at All---Boats Were Run Aground to Prevent Sinking

Special to The Daily Dispatch:

New Orleans, Oct. 27, 10:55 a. m.—A long distance telephone messeage from Nairn, La., sixty miles down the river, announces that the light house tender, Magnolia, with President Roosevelt on board was in collision with the fruit steamer, Esparta, shortly after midnight. Both vessels were run aground at river bank. No one was seriously hurt. The president is safe and uninjured, and light house tender Ivy took the president on board, and the voyage to the Gulf of Mexico was resumed.

FEARS NOT JUSTIFIED

PEOPLE OF ST. PETERSBURG IN A PANIC OVER THE ALARMING RUMORS CURRENT.

STRIKERS ARMED AND PAID

REVOLUTIONISTS AT MOSCOW OBTAIN FUNDS FROM A MYSTERIOUS SOURCE.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 27.—St. Petersburg was in a panic during the day, but to a large extent apparently without reason. The most alarming rumors were in circulation and the shopkeepers on all except a few of the principal streets closed their stores and boarded up the doors and windows, while peaceful minded inhabitants kept within doors. Anxiety was evidenced in the whole atmosphere of the city, but so far nothing has occurred to justify these fears. There were no disorders.

General Trepoff, who has been placed in command of the St. Petersburg garrison and given an additional division of reinforcements, declares that he is amply able to maintain order, and the police are allowing the strikers to vent their enthusiasm so as to avoid a conflict. General Trepoff instructed the police not to interfere with the parades so long as they were orderly, but he gave notice at night that he was prepared to cope firmly with any disorder. He had printed in all the evening papers a notification that the troops would be ordered to use ball cartridges without any preliminary firing of blank cartridges in case there should be any outbreak.

Moved Some Trains.

By the greatest exertions the government during the day succeeded in moving trains manned by military operatives on a few railroads. Traffic was resumed irregularly on the Moscow and St. Petersburg railroad, and on lines from Moscow to Brest and Kazan. The first efforts were directed to the moving of cattle trains so as to meet the pinch of approaching famines in the two capitals, and one trainload of cattle arrived at St. Petersburg and another at Moscow. Peasants are also driving cattle on the hoof into Moscow. A scanty supply of milk, butter and eggs is arriving in St. Petersburg over the Finland railroad, the employes of which refuse to strike.

The situation, however, cannot be regarded as much improved. The strikers at their meetings during the day were as determined as ever to continue the strike and the full force of the government railroad battalions is almost helpless in the face of the general strike on the railroads. The most encouraging feature of the situation is the absence of any widespread disorder.

Uprising at Kharkoff.

Picturesque details have been received of the uprising at Kharkoff, where students and strikers took possession of the locality in the center of the city containing the university, the cathedral and other buildings, threw up barricades, constructed a regular fortress and elected a provisional government. But cooler heads on either side effected an agreement which made it unnecessary for the troops to storm the revolutionary citadel, the defenders of which marched out with full honors of war.

Minor tumults are reported from many cities, but in general strikers are adhering to their determination to make the protest in orderly fashion in order to show themselves to be fit for self-government. The strike has proved most effective in forcing the government to speedy action on measures which have been slumbering in commission for many weeks. Wednesday night the ministers after a five-hour session finished the final draft of a law creating a responsible council of ministers and have since completed the statute granting freedom of assembly, which will be taken to Emperor Nicholas during the day for signature.

Witte to Define His Policy.

It is reported that M. Witte, simultaneously with the promulgation of the cabinet statute, will issue a proclamation defining his policy and asking the nation to give a fair trial to the new governmental system and resist the efforts of revolutionaries to throw the entire country into a state of anarchy.

The source of the funds which are apparently at the command of the revolutionists is a mystery. At Moscow the revolutionary committee is paying strikers 15 cents daily and has invested large sums in arms and ammunition. The rifles and cartridges taken in Finland and Poland were part of those purchased by the committee. It is conjectured that financial aid is being received from Socialists and revolutionists abroad and that some of it may come from America in response to an appeal published recently in New York newspapers on behalf of the Jewish bund.

The tactics of the revolutionists in St. Petersburg are apparently to create a reign of terror. Warnings have been sent to merchants on the Nevski, Moraski, Ascension and other fashionable thoroughfares to close in order to avoid pillage and the torch. The doctors are receiving notifications ordering them to discontinue visits to the sick on penalty of death. Word has been passed among servants mysteriously that a mob was preparing to sack the residences of the better class.

Apprehension apparently prevails in imperial circles. It is reported that the imperial yacht Polar Star is lying off Cronstadt constantly under steam and that the smaller yacht Strellah is held in waiting at the wharf at Peterhof for emergency use.

LONG JOURNEY IS ENDED.

Harriman's Special Train Finishes Its Trip Across the Continent.

New York, Oct. 27.—The E. H. Harriman special train with Miss Alice Roosevelt on board, arrived in Jersey City over the Erie railroad at 7:45 o'clock p. m. Mr. Harriman and the members of his family left the train at Arden, N. Y., where Mr. Harriman's country place is located. The only members of the original Taft party who came through on the train were Miss Roosevelt and her traveling companions, Misses Boardman and McMillan, Congressman Gillette of Massachusetts and J. C. McKnight.

Miss Roosevelt was driven directly to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, 10 East Seventy-third street, New York, where she will spend the night, leaving for Washington in the morning, if sufficiently rested by that time. Members of the party denied that Miss Roosevelt had been sick during the trip, saying she was somewhat fatigued from the long journey across the continent and for that reason did not appear on the train platform during the stop at Elmira, N. Y.

The trip from San Francisco to New York on the Harriman special was made in slightly more than seventy-three hours.

DELEGATES KEPT OUT

NOT ALLOWED TO ATTEND INTERSTATE LAW CONVENTION AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Refusing to stand for President Roosevelt's policy for the regulation of railroad rates, a large number of delegates to the Interstate law convention were barred from the convention of that organization during the day and thereupon held a separate meeting to give expression to their ideas on the subject. The original convention was held in Steinway hall, while the "anti" convention met in Music or Studebaker hall, several blocks distant. For alleged attempts to thwart the purpose of the convention, the delegates at Steinway hall refused to admit delegates although properly accredited unless they would agree to support the president's rate plan. These delegates objected to the procedure, demanding they be given the right of free speech, while the opposition charged they were sent by the railways and other alleged unfair interests to pack the convention. A number of exciting scenes followed, before the meetings were called to order in the conventions of both sides. The number of delegates at each convention was about equal, ranging between 400 and 500. Speeches, organization, and resolutions, including one which was presented in the Studebaker hall convention asking the president to settle the dispute as to which was the regular convention, but upon which no action was taken, took up the time of the first meeting of the conventions.

MONEY IS STILL MISSING.

Officers Unable to Locate All of Cunliffe's Plunder.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 27.—Private detectives who have been investigating the robbery of the Adams Express company in Pittsburg by Edward Cunliffe, returned to Hartford during the day and again visited the house in East Hartford where Mrs. Cunliffe is staying with her parents. On previous visits the detectives endeavored to secure from Mrs. Cunliffe or her relatives a statement regarding the $10,000 which is the only part of the $101,000 taken by Cunliffe that has not been recovered. It is alleged that Cunliffe in one of his statements to the detectives said that he had turned the missing money over to his wife. Both Mrs. Cunliffe and her father, however, have steadfastly denied any knowledge of the money.

SIX PERSONS PERISHED.

Hotel at Hot Springs, Ark., Destroyed by Fire.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 27.—The Railroadmen's hotel, located a block below the Iron Mountain railroad depot on Elm street, was destroyed by fire early in the morning and when the fire was gotten under control six badly charred bodies were found in the ruins. They were identified as follows:

A. L. Mann, railway conductor, Denver; Mrs. Mack, pianist, city; Ed Snyder, hotel porter; Harry Bradley, waiter, H. Roberts, Tacoma, Wash.; John McLeon, Austin, Tex.

Frank Overton was badly burned but will probably recover.

The structure was a two-story frame building and the flames spread rapidly, cutting off escapes by hallway, both up and down stairs. Several occupants jumped out of the second-story windows and were injured.

The fire was thought to have been caused by a lamp exploding, but incendiarism is now suspected.

RECOMMENDS JEROME.

Republican Committee Would Put Him on the Ticket.

New York, Oct. 27.—With only one dissenting voice and acting under a legal opinion rendered by Joseph H. Choate, the executive committee of the Republican county committee decided to reconvene the New York county convention at night in Murray Hill Lyceum, the call for the convention carrying with it the recommendation that William Travers Jerome be nominated as district attorney to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Charles A. Flammer, who in retiring from the ticket, advised his followers to vote for Mr. Jerome.

The committee which almost unanimously voted for Mr. Jerome during the day opposed his nomination by 27 votes to 8 when his name was suggested for the Republican ticket a few weeks ago.

The only voice raised in opposition to the course determined upon by the executive committee was that of Abraham Gruber, an assembly district leader, who declared his constituents would not vote for Mr. Jerome.

DISSOLUTION CONCLUDED.

Sweden Recognizes Norway as an Independent State.

Stockholm, Oct. 27.—Representatives of the Swedish and Norwegian governments during the evening signed the treaties involved in the Karistad agreement. The treaties, which are drawn in Swedish, Norwegian and French, operate without ratification, and the Swedish government has authorized the minister of foreign affairs to notify the foreign powers of its recognition of Norway as a separate state.

All the formalities of the dissolution have now practically been concluded.

FIRST GALE OF THE SEASON.

Sweeps Over the Virginia and Carolina Coast.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 27.—The first real gale of the season swept over the Virginia-Carolina coast from the northeast at night and at Cape Henry before the force of the blow prostrated the government telegraph system a maximum wind velocity of fifty-two miles an hour was reported. At Norfolk the rate was much less, but the blow outside drove the tide back into Hampton Roads and the Elizabeth river. Low streets along the water front were flooded and street railway traffic was tied up in some portions of the city by the flood. The East End trestle of the city line was under water and all travel to Newport News was suspended. A message over the government wires from Little Island life saving station reports an unknown steamship anchored one mile off shore to the north of that point. The craft seems to have deranged her steering gear. Hampton Roads is sheltering scores of storm bound vessels.

COW AIDS IN SUICIDE.

Iowa Man Ends His Life in Peculiar Manner.

Des Moines, Oct. 27.—With the assistance of a cow Arthur Boyd of Mingo, aged twenty-two years, committed suicide by hanging. Boyd untied the cow, threw the loose end of the rope over a ratter, tied it around his neck and jumped into eternity. The bellowing, kicking cow caused Mrs. Boyd to rush to the barn. Boyd was dead.

The rope which haltered the cow was short and in tying it around his neck Boyd was obliged to stand on the manger. When his body was found his feet were hanging three feet from the floor and the cow was struggling madly for its release.

Cuban Papers Accuse Squiers.

Havana, Oct. 27.—The administration newspapers characterize the talk of annexation to the United States which has cropped out in connection with the Anglo-Cuban commercial treaty as a conspiracy and even broadly hint that Herbert G. Squiers, the American minister, is a party to it.

The use of envelopes was scarcely known until after penny postage was introduced.

FAST TRAINS COLLIDE

FOUR PERSONS KILLED AND SEVERAL OTHERS INJURED IN A WRECK IN IOWA.

OPERATOR IS RESPONSIBLE

ALLEGED THAT HE FAILED TO DELIVER ORDERS TO ONE OF THE TRAIN CREWS.

Fairfield, Ia., Oct. 27.—Two fast passenger trains on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway collided head-on at a point one mile south of Fairfield early in the day. The wrecked trains were No. 11, which left Chicago at 8:20 p. m., for the West, and No. 12, which departed from Kansas City at 6:30 p. m. Four persons were killed and between fifteen and twenty injured, none fatally. The dead are:

F. J. Milks, Muscatine, Ia., engineer, No. 11; Glen Canfield, Murray, Ia., mail clerk; Detective Griffith, Lucas, Ia.; an unknown tramp.

The most seriously injured are:

W. H. Dunham, Eldon, Ia., engineer No. 12; E. W. Witte, Eldon, Ia., fireman on No. 11; H. G. Pottorf, Eldon, Ia., fireman on No. 12; O. B. Helmar, mail clerk on No. 11; J. E. Hickman, mail clerk; G. W. Williams, George Fisher, J. Quakens and F. S. Hagle, passengers on No. 12; Trainmaster Kennelly.

The collision was caused by the failure of the telegraph operator at Fairfield to deliver to the crew of No. 11 an order to meet No. 12 at Fairfield.

At the time of the accident the trains were running at the rate of about thirty miles an hour.

Both engines were demolished by the impact, which was terrific. Four cars of No. 12 were derailed and seven damaged and most of the injured were on this train. All the killed were on No. 11, which also was badly damaged.

A relief train with physicians was sent to the scene from Eldon and the injured were removed to the latter point. Traffic was tied up for nearly twelve hours.

Women Who Force Themselves to Work

Women Who Suffer from All Manner of Uterine and Ovarian Troubles, Weak, Nervous, Bloodless Melancholy Women Find a Positive Cure in

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

Every day sees an army of worn out women dragging themselves to work or forcing themselves to attend to their household duties—women whose trouble lies in an overstrain or over-exertion at some time in the past—women who stay in this condition and think themselves beyond repair, because they know nothing of the wonderful power of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to give them back their health, strength and vitality, by their ability to re-supply the lost nerve energy, to build up the system, to manufacture good, rich blood, and give increased weight by making the digestion strong and vigorous.

Mrs. Ella Smith, of No. 43 Miller St., Newark, N. Y., Writes:

"Last summer I was so weak I staggered when I walked. I was very nervous, easily excited, could not rest nights, blood thin, appetite poor, and hands trembly—I was in a low state of health. About this time I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and though everything else had failed, these pills put me on my feet in good health, and that quickly, too. It was not long before I was eating and sleeping well—the nervousness and trembling gone—the blood rich and my strength back. They are a grand medicine and I feel vigorous and strong in every way." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Company, Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. GRAY'S LIVERY REDUCED TO ASHES

An Early Morning Conflagration Results in Loss of About $5,000

ORIGIN OF FIRE IS UNKNOWN

One Horse Burned to Death and One Man Has a Very Narrow Escape

A fire at 5:30 o'clock this morning razed to the ground the Justin M. Gray livery stable on Laurel and Fifth street entailing a loss of about $5,000, upon which Mr. Gray carries $2,500.

The alarm was sent in just a little before 5:30 o'clock and when Mr. Gray got out of bed and investigated the entire building was in flames, and the origin of the blaze will perhaps always remain a mystery.

The department arrived promptly and did effective work in keeping the fire confined to the one building. for if it had once started in on the corner there is no telling what the final outcome would have been, for there was a high wind blowing from the northwest.

The efforts of the firemen and others was directed to saving the horses in the stable. There were a dozen horses that, when the department arrived, were dancing and prancing in their stalls, and all of these were taken outside except one. This one horse was safely on the outside but he ran in again when no one happened to be near the front door and he was consumed.

Some of the carriages and wagons were taken out but three buggies burned, several cutters and bobsleighs and a large number of sets of harness. Fortunately Mr. Gray did not have a great deal of hay in the barn at the time, not nearly as much as he usually has, but he expected to haul in a large lot next week and would have had several tons in by the end of next week.

The fire seemed to envelope the whole building and by 6 o'clock there was not the slightest chance of saving any part of it. A second alarm was sent in and more help was secured to try and confine the fire and avoid any further damage. This the department was successful in doing.

One fatality nearly resulted on account of the fire. A man by the name of Herman Bathke who drives the delivery wagon for Mr. Gray's meat market, was asleep in a small room adjoining the harness room. Mr. Gray had to use rather strenuous means to wake him up and finally after he did wake the man he covered his head again and went to sleep. He had to be almost dragged out of the building.

Mr. Gray states that he had twenty sets of heavy work harness stored in the building which he was unable to get out and he figures that his total loss will reach $5,000. He carried $2,000 on the building and $500 on stock. The building was a brick veneered structure and had been improved the past year or two quite extensively.

MAJOR SCOTT WANTS TO QUIT

Major Scott, of the Leech Lake Indian Reservation, So Expresses Himself to The Department

The dispatches of the past few days have been announcing the retirement of Major Scott, of the Leech Lake Indian reservation, but there was some talk of still retaining him at the head of the Chippewas, but he has notified the Indian office of his retirement from active service and, it is understood, he has asked to be relieved of his detail. The request will be referred to Secretary Hitchcock for action and it is probable that it will be granted, although both the secretary and Indian Commissioner Leupp would be pleased to have Major Scott remain in the Indian service if he cares to.

WORKMEN HAVE A BIG TIME

Over Three Hundred Members of The Order Present at Meeting Last Night

CLASS NUMBER ABOUT THIRTY

Work was Exemplified in Befitting Manner by Officers of Grand Lodge

The meeting of the local lodge, A. O. U. W., last night was even a greater success than was at first anticipated, for there were fully three hundred or more members present as an indication of the interest taken in the initiation of one of the largest classes in the history of the organization in this city. There were thirty candidates who were initiated last night, and the work was especially interesting being done by the grand lodge officers who were present. Judge J. T. Sanborn, grand guide, had charge of the first or junior work, Grand Foreman M. C. Tiff, of Long Prairie, worked the second and Grand Recorder Chas. Larson had charge of the secret work. This was very interesting and was thoroughly enjoyed.

Following the work, which was exemplified in Elk hall, the guests repaired to Walker's hall where they sat down to a banquet prepared by the members of the Degree of Honor, following which there was a musical and literary program which was one of the most interesting features of the evening. Col. C. D. Johnson gave one of his characteristic addresses, and addresses were also heard from the grand lodge officers. Judge Alderman was heard in song and the Bush brothers furnished some instrumental music.

This program was followed by a dance and others who did not dance played cards. The work of the evening and the social features combined made it one of the most pleasant evenings in the history of the order in this city.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

MR. DANIEL SULLY IN "OUR PASTOR"

The seat sale for the performance "Our Pastor" by Mr. Daniel Sully will go on Monday morning at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s and much interest is being taken in the event. Only this season Mr. Sully, who is not a stranger to Brainerd theatre goers, received the following flattering notice from the Toledo Times:

"When the Lyceum audience on a Sunday night gives a curtain call and insists on a speech after the first act, it can safely be accepted as a sign that something unusually good is offered. On one but an artist ever receives that tribute. The dare devil hero may gain applause and the girl with the short skirts arouse enthusiasm, but a curtain call and a speech at the Lyceum mean that the genius of an actor has found its way to an appreciative sympathy across the footlights.

"Daniel Sully received this tribute last night. In "Our Pastor" he is cast as a priest in a boom city in Idaho. The placing of such a role as the central one of a comedy drama is a somewhat delicate undertaking and one would not like to see it in hands less skilled than those of Sully. He is at all times the kindly, witty, fearless son of the church, doing his duty where he has been called in a way that wins the heart of the audience before the first act has unrolled itself."

A GREAT WEAPON.

Brainerd People Cannot Fail To Appreciate Its Value.

Only one weapon,
To fight backache—
The weapon that strikes the cause.
Doan's Kidney Pills strikes the root.
Their work in Brainerd proves it.
You read of cures made years ago.
And the cures were lasting cures.
Read the following:

Philip O'Neil, of 516 Norwood St., Brainerd, Minn., says:

"Brainerd people have seen in the local papers the testimonial I gave in 1898, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, and many times I have been called upon to corroborate that statement in personal interviews. My confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills has not been lessened during the past six years. It has shown itself equal to all the claims made for it. I was a sufferer for a long time from backache and pains in the loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent and much discolored. The trouble became worse and worse and nothing helped it until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store. I used this remedy faithfully until the annoyance from the kidney secretions ceased and the pains and backache disappeared. The cure then effected has been most gratifying and altogether permanent."

DEVELOPMENT OF MINE

Work Going Ahead at the Shakespeare Mine at Webbwood, Ont., According To Exchange

The following is taken from the Evening News at the Soo:

"A large interest in the Shakespeare mine is held by residents of the two Soos, and since the annual meeting, held October 2, when the majority of the board of directors was chosen, there has been new interest excited and a great deal of discussion about the progress in the past, and the present conditions of the mine.

"Steps have been taken to inaugurate a thorough businesslike and systematic management. However, work enough has already been done to establish the fact of large ore bodies, which have increased in size and richness for three levels and to a depth of 150 feet.

"But little stoping has been done, the ore being supplied to the mill from drifts and crosscuts so that the stoping ground for a 150 feet in depth and several hundred feet in length is left practically intact, sufficient to supply the present mill for a number of years. At the same time, it will be the policy of the new management to push sinking as rapidly as possible to the 500 foot level.

"It must be remembered, too, that sinking and drifting is usually, considered 'dead work' and expensive, and only preparatory for the cheaper work of stoping to come afterwards.

"Another important fact is, that the average yield of $11 per ton of ore put through the mill is something remarkable for such a large body of vein matter. Experts assert that $3 to $5 ore will pay big profits. The Treadwell has been cited as paying big profits on ore running on $2 per ton."

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and will not constipate like nearly all other cough medicines. Refuse substitutes. H. P. Dunn & Co. mwfwlm

SERIOUSLY ILL

Mrs. Josephine Demsie, of Duluth, Minn., Regains Her Health in a Most Remarkable Manner.

Mrs. Josephine Demsie, of 605 W. 3rd St., Duluth, Minn., has for some time been suffering with a complication of diseases that originated with a disordered stomach and which developed into dyspepsia; the bowels became constipated and finally caused catarrh of the stomach; the nervous system became shattered and in a comparatively short time she was on the verge of a nervous breakdown. Her suffering was intense and medicines did not seem to have any effect.

A short time ago Mrs. Demsie read of the Famous Cooper and his remarkable medicines. She purchased two bottles of Cooper's New Discovery, the medicine that has been curing so marvelously Rheumatism, Catarrh, Deafness, Blood Diseases, Kidney and Stomach Trouble and Paralysis, and began taking it.

The effect it had upon her was the same instantaneous relief that it affords every one. Regarding her case Mrs. Demsie wrote: "After finishing the second bottle I was undescribably relieved. To Cooper's New Discovery is due the credit of my restored health and strength."

The above is one of the dozens of remarkabe cases of the marvelous influence of this medicine over disease that come to light every day.

Cooper's New Discovery is an internal medicine and sells for one dollar per bottle, while Cooper's Quick Relief, the assistant remedy, used externally, sells for fifty cents.

The "Famous Cooper Remedies," as they are often called, are sold in this city by Cooper's special representatives, H. P. Dunn & Co.

PLEASANT TRIP ENDS

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S TOUR OF THE SOUTH CONCLUDED AT NEW ORLEANS.

PEOPLE SHOWED GRATITUDE

INHABITANTS OF FEVER STRICKEN CITY WARMLY WELCOMED CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

New Orleans, Oct. 27.—At the end of the nine strenuous hours of entertainment in New Orleans, which brought his exceptionally pleasant trip through the South to a close, President Roosevelt at 6:30 p. m. boarded the lighthouse tender Magnolia and began the first stage of his return journey to the national capital. No newspaper representative accompanied him and he will be out of touch with the world throughout the night, but daylight is expected to bring news of his successful transfer to the armored cruiser West Virginia, which lies at anchor off the mouth of the river to receive him, and of the beginning of the second stage of the journey. For four days he will be absent from American soil.

The president's New Orleans reception was a signal testimonial of popular esteem and of grateful recognition of the service which he had rendered the city in her period of distress. New Orleans remembered not only that the president had acted with characteristic promptness when asked to send federal surgeons to take charge of the fever struggle, but that throughout the fight had sustained the people of the stricken city with expressions of unfailing sympathy and when a large share of the public opinion of the country opposed his venturing into New Orleans while the fever still prevailed, he refused to consider the element of personal danger and declared his purpose to keep the promise he made when he accepted the original invitation to come. The densely crowded streets, the elaborate decorations, the wild applause that greeted him along the whole route of the parade, the enthusiasm with which his address to the multitude on Lafayette square was received and the remarkable demonstration in his honor at the luncheon were outward manifestations of the spirit in which the people welcomed him.

Compelled to Abandon Address.

Probably for the first time in his career the president was compelled to abandon a public address before he had got well started on it. It was contemplated that the military and civil parade should pass in review before the president at the city hall, but the crowd which gathered at this point was so tremendous that neither the police nor the troops were able to move it and the president, foreseeing a possible catastrophe in the event of a panic, finally gave up the attempt to speak and left the platform. The crowd jammed St. Charles street from property line to property line all the way from Poydras to Ninth street and spread over Lafayette square almost from St. Charles to Champ streets. Probably 50,000 people were gathered around the stand from which the president was to deliver his address. When the president decided to abandon the speech, he shouted to the crowd to "go home and be good citizens," and then disappeared in the mayor's parlors well nigh exhausted. To those about him he expressed himself as immensely pleased with the demonstration in his honor which was far beyond his expectations or the expectations of the members of his party and said that the reception was the greatest that he had had since he had started on his trip.

An Unceasing Ovation.

The demonstration at luncheon was scarcely less exuberant. When the president entered the superbly decorated dining hall the 625 banquetters rose as one man and gave way to frantic cheers. Every reference of Governor Blanchard, Mayor Behrman and President Sanders of the Progressive union to the guest brought forth a perfect storm of cheering and when the president himself arose he had great difficulty in speaking. Every thought he uttered was the signal for an extraordinary exhibition of enthusiasm and as his speech dealt almost entirely with local subjects and had special reference to the fight against yellow fever, the banquet developed into an unceasing ovation while the president was on his feet.

An immense crowd packed Gravier and St. Charles streets as the dinner ended and the appearance of the president on his way to the river provoked thunderous applause. The cheers lasted all the way from the hotel to the river front. As the Magnolia left her landing a presidential salute was fired and the indescribable din of the whistles of the factories and the river craft mingled with the lusty cheers of thousands of people who had collected on the wharf. From the moment of his arrival early in the forenoon till he said farewell on the deck of the Magnolia at night he was constantly in the limelight. The crowded programme gave him no opportunity for rest. But there was every evidence in his expressions to those who were with him throughout the day and in his acknowledgment of the popular demonstration that met him on every hand of the keen enjoyment he found in his visit.

PROBABLY CLOSED FOR GOOD.

Enterprise National Bank May Never Reopen Its Doors.

Pittsburg, Oct. 27.—It is not probable that the Enterprise National bank will ever reopen its doors.

Such is the opinion of many of the directors, of whom it is said that their main hope now is to save the depositors as much as possible.

The books of the institution are said to be in such a hopelessly muddled condition that it may take many weeks to arrive at anything like a lucid statement of the bank's affairs.

Collateral to the amount of $70,000 deposited by Arthur Kennedy to secure a loan of $20,000 is now reported missing.

For almost two hours during the day Judge Oldham was closeted in the board room of the bank with Bookkeeper Ralston, who returned to the city from Cuba on Wednesday. Receiver Cunningham was present at the interview and Ralston was questioned concerning the bank's books. Nothing was given out after the conference.

YELLOW FEVER FORGOTTEN.

President Roosevelt's Visit Main Object of Interest in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 27.—Following is the official yellow fever record up to 6 p. m.: New cases, 3; total, 3,378; deaths, 0; total, 439; new focus, 1; cases under treatment, 42; cases discharged, 2,900.

All interest in the yellow fever situation was lost in the enthusiasm over the president's visit, but the low record was gratifying just the same. With only three cases, no deaths and forty-two cases under treatment, the work is regarded as practically over with.

Fever Cases Increasing.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 27.—The yellow fever situation does not show any improvement over the previous days, but on the other hand, a unexpectedly large number of cases developed. The summary: New cases, 12; total to date, 517; deaths, 2; total, 72; cases discharged, 365; cases under treatment, 80.

SOLD IMPURE FOOD.

Grocers and Packing Company's Agent Convicted.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—The cases of Burt & Dennis, grocers, and Fred Hall, local manager for Swift & Co., charged with furnishing impure food to the League Island navyyard, came up before Judge McMichael in the criminal court. John F. Burt and William H. Dennis, trading as Burt & Dennis, were charged with supplying oleomargarine to the navyyard as a substitute for butter. They pleaded guilty and were fined $250 and costs and sentenced to sixty days in the county prison.

The charge against Hall was that of furnishing to the contractor who supplies the station sausage containing a preservative injurious to health. Hall was fined $100, the cost of prosecution and the expense of an analysis of the sausage.
